MERCHANDISING / DESIGN / CASTING

The forty-look collection

Ten original product concepts per group. Everyday denim, jersey and knits sit alongside activity-specific sportswear, ten distinct outerwear constructions and tailoring for different occasions. Open a concept for proposed technical details and complete styling.

Four showroom labels and their route mapping await owner confirmation. Casting is natural and commercially appealing, generally adult 22–35; the clothes supply the primary variety. Weights, fibres and hidden construction below are design targets.

ARCHIVED TECHNICAL PILOT / REASSESSED

Previous eight looks

All native files, 24 selected photographs, eight masters and rejected attempts remain preserved. Technical completion does not establish artistic approval.

Six remain candidates for later review: Offset denim → Outerwear 04; Transit cargo → Casualwear 06; Airline running → Activewear 02; Baseline court → Activewear 04; Solstice linen → Casualwear 08; Rainline trench → Outerwear 09. Transit needs hardware continuity reconciliation; Rainline's Editorial hand overlaps the storm flap.

Two selected castings are not carried forward: Strata's deliberately shaved/moustached casting and Axis's deliberately platinum buzz casting arose from forced differentiation. Their garment ideas and all files remain archived. No previous image is automatically selected for this collection.

Natural hair colour or appearance alone is not grounds for rejection. All retention decisions remain pending owner review.

COMMERCIAL CONTEXT / RESEARCHED 23 OCTOBER 2026

Retail product evidence

The proposed four groups are a curated showroom structure. Retail labels overlap and often use Jackets & Coats or Suits & Tailoring. Observed product assortments support breadth; they do not prove a universal taxonomy or a 2027 trend. Search crawl dates are not launch dates.

1. R01 · H&M — men jackets and coats

   Assortment includes distinct bomber, trucker, workwear, puffer, windbreaker and long coat families. Men navigation separates denim, shirts, knitwear, matching sets, jackets/coats and suits/blazers. Search crawl: today; opened category previously reported a two-month cache. Breadth and seasonal function only; no price or availability claim.

2. R02 · COS — coats and jackets

   Separate coat, wool, leather/suede and overshirt filters; actual items include wool long coats, nylon bombers, Harringtons, denim and utility layers. Search crawl: today; relaxed-fit category five days ago. Supports material and length differentiation, not one repeated generic jacket.

3. R03 · COS — suits and tailoring

   Wool, linen, unstructured and collarless jackets appear with straight, wide and pleated trousers. Search crawl: last month; related relaxed-fit suits page today. Category breadth, no statement that all suit cuts are a 2027 trend.

4. R04 · Zara — relaxed textured knit polo

   Cotton short-sleeve textured polo with collar and rib finishing demonstrates this established knit product family. Search publication label: last month; page explicitly out of stock. Product-family precedent only; not an available-stock or seasonal trend claim. New texture, proportions, palette and styling conceived independently.

5. R05 · COS — men clothing taxonomy

   Navigation separates shirts, tees, sweatshirts, jeans, trousers/shorts, coats/jackets and suits/tailoring; listings include relaxed straight and pleated denim. Search cache: last month. Supports curated casual breadth; no global taxonomy claim.

6. R06 · ASOS — sportswear assortment

   Actual listing breadth spans training tees and 5/7-inch shorts, football training joggers, running half-zips, tracksuit layers and rest-day coordinates. Activity filters distinguish training, running, football and outdoors. Search crawl: three days ago. Branded team and performance names are not transferred to original designs. Function is proposed, not certified.

7. R07 · Nike — men basketball apparel

   Jersey and shorts families support the basketball-inspired kit allocation. Search crawl: today in research session. No club identity, player number, logos or exact kit copied.

8. R08 · Mango — men jackets

   Filters distinguish field, denim, leather, quilted and bomber products; fibre options include cotton/lyocell and technical shells. Category search label: 2026; cached six months. Cached category context; not evidence of a forward 2027 forecast or live stock.

9. R09 · Massimo Dutti — suits

Actual assortment contains wool, cool-wool, textured and striped matching jacket/trouser products; adjacent shirt, tie and shoe groups. Search crawl: five days ago. Supports textile and occasion breadth, not mandatory formal styling for every suit.

10. R10 · Zara — suits assortment

    Search listings include wool, linen blends, relaxed double-breasted and collarless tailoring. Search publication label: last month; open returned a much older cached representation. Secondary corroboration only because open cache differs. Current COS and Massimo Dutti records carry the tailoring conclusion.

DECISION GATE

Review before production

Approval requested for the four category labels, the forty-look plan and these four actual Front photographs: clothing, fit, colour, casting, hair, styling and studio. Back and Editorial have not been produced in this reset.

After explicit approval: finish all approved looks with genuine Front / Back / Editorial, consistent models and outfits, fashionable Editorial poses and three-view masters. Current corrected status: 4 Front candidates, 0 owner-approved active photographs; 116 views remain unproduced. This is not a completed forty-look collection.

The public Portfolio, navigation, historical links and Womenswear remain unchanged. No merge or deployment.
